- GUEST SPEAKER: Chico Nelson will be our 2011 guest speaker. Chico graduated from Sarasota High School, and as a Buckeye played strong safety from 1990 through 1993. Chico was recruited by all the football powers in his home state of Florida, but chose The Ohio State University. When asked why he chose to matriculate to Columbus, Ohio and become a Buckeye, he said two things helped him in this decision. "First, I remembered seeing (former Buckeye receiver) Cris Carter on TV wearing red Nikes, and I wanted to wear red Nikes." "And secondly I wanted to see snow."

Chico was a hard-hitting football player and helped Buckeye opponents see stars on many occasions. He served as defensive co-captain as a senior. "In the spring game in 1990, Bill Young, defensive coordinator, said the man is a 'headhunter' as he hit (tight end) Cedric Saunders (also from Sarasota), so hard we thought he'd knocked Cedric's head off. His helmet flew off. His mouthpiece came out. It scared us all."
